COMPLAINT

1. This is an action for money damages brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and under the common law and statutes of the State of Illinois.

2. Jurisdiction for Plaintiffs' federal claims are based on 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1333. Jurisdiction for Plaintiffs' state claims are based on supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a).

Parties

3. Plaintiffs GEORGE EDWARDS, LORETTA STAPLES, LOLITA WRIGHT, TIMOTHY PATES, and ANDRE NEWTON are citizens of the United States and of the State of Illinois, and are residents of the County of Cook and the City of Chicago.

4. Defendant police officers are duly appointed and sworn City of Chicago police officers. At all times material to this complaint, Defendant-Officers were acting in the course and scope of their employment and under color of state law, ordinance and/or regulation.

5. The Defendant-Officers are sued in their individual capacities.

6. The CITY OF CHICAGO is a municipal corporation, duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois, and is the employer and principal of the Defendant police officers.

Facts

7. On or about October 29, 2005, Plaintiffs GEORGE EDWARDS, LORETTA STAPLES, LOLITA WRIGHT, TIMOTHY PATES, and ANDRE NEWTON drove to Bank One located at 5687 South Archer Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, to close Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES' checking account.

8. Plaintiffs parked their van on a side street next to Bank One.

9. Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES went into Bank One to close her checking account.

10. Approximately thirty minutes after Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES entered the bank, Plaintiff GEORGE EDWARDS went into the bank to check on Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES.

11. Once inside the bank, Plaintiff GEORGE EDWARDS found Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES sitting in the lobby.

12. Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES informed Plaintiff GEORGE EDWARDS that the banker that opened her account, Thomas Raschka, was busy with another customer.

13. Plaintiff GEORGE EDWARDS told Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES to withdraw $95.00 from her account, and just leave the remaining $5.00 in the account.

14. Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES withdrew $95.00 out of her checking account from one of the bank tellers.

15. Plaintiffs LORETTA STAPLES and GEORGE EDWARDS then left the bank.

16. Plaintiffs GEORGE EDWARDS and LORETTA STAPLES walked to Plaintiffs' van where Plaintiffs LOLITA WRIGHT, TIMOTHY PATES and ANDRE NEWTON were waiting.

17. Plaintiff GEORGE EDWARDS got into the driver's seat, and Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES got into the back of the van.

18. As soon as Plaintiff GEORGE EDWARDS started the van, at least eight Chicago police officers, including the Defendant-Officers, surrounded the van. All officers were Caucasian. All of the officers were male, except one officer was female. About half of the officers were in police uniform, and the rest were in plain clothes.

19. About three of the Defendant-Officers had their guns pointed at the van and at Plaintiffs.

20. The officers ordered the Plaintiffs not to move.

21. One of the male Defendant-Officers reached into the driver's side window and removed the keys from the van's ignition.

22. The officers then ordered the Plaintiffs out of the van.

23. Once outside the van, the Plaintiffs were handcuffed.

24. Plaintiffs LORETTA STAPLES and LOLITA WRIGHT were handcuffed together.

25. Plaintiffs GEORGE EDWARDS and TIMOTHY PATES were handcuffed together and thrown onto the hood of the van.

26. The Plaintiffs were not free to leave.
27. The Defendant-Officers did not have a warrant, probable cause, reasonable suspicion, consent, or any other lawful basis to search, seize, detain, arrest or stop Plaintiffs.
28. Plaintiffs had not violated any city, state or federal law.
29. The Defendant-Officers did not have any reason to believe that Plaintiffs had violated, or was about to violate, any city, state or federal law.
30. The Defendant-Officers did not have a reasonable suspicion, based upon specific and articulable facts, that the Plaintiffs had committed or was about to commit a crime.
31. Two of the male Defendant-Officers searched Plaintiff LOLITA WRIGHTS' van.
32. The Defendant-Officers did not have a warrant to search the van.
33. The Defendant-Officers frisked and searched the Plaintiffs' persons without legal justification or probable cause.
34. Female Plaintiffs LOLITA WRIGHT and LORETTA STAPLES were frisked and searched by the female Defendant-Officer.
35. Plaintiff LOLITA WRIGHT, who suffers from a medical condition, began to have problems breathing.
36. Plaintiff LOLITA WRIGHT informed the female Defendant-Officer that she needed her medicine from inside her purse.
37. The female Defendant-Officer pushed Plaintiff LOLITA WRIGHT in the chest and threw Plaintiff's medicine inside the van.
38. Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES wears a chest pad as a result of breast-cancer surgery.

39. The female Defendant-Officer removed Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES' chest pad and threw it on the ground.

40. The Plaintiffs asked the Defendant-Officers why they were handcuffed.

41. Plaintiffs were told, "Shut up, you all know the routine."

42. The Defendant-Officers told the Plaintiffs that they had tried to rob the bank.

43. The Plaintiffs explained to the Defendant-Officers that they were just trying to close Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES' bank account.

44. One of the male Defendant-Officers took Plaintiff LORETTA STAPLES' account book and went inside the bank.

45. While this Defendant-Officer was inside the bank, the Plaintiffs remained handcuffed.

46. Several minutes later, the Defendant-Officer returned from the bank and told the Plaintiffs they tried to bounce a check.

47. The Plaintiffs told the Defendant-Officers that they did not try to bounce a check.

48. The Defendant-Officers told the Plaintiffs that the bank does not want black people at this bank.

49. During the course of their search, the Defendant-Officers did not find any weapons, narcotics, or any evidence of any illegal activity.

50. Plaintiffs were not charged with any crimes or issued any citations.

51. Defendant-Officers released the Plaintiffs and then left the scene.

52. The Defendant-Officers did not provide Plaintiffs with an explanation for what happened, or even an apology.

53. Plaintiffs made a complaint with the Office of Professional Standards about the incident, and the investigation was made under CR 308067.

54. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of the Defendant-Officers described above, Plaintiffs has suffered and continue to suffer great damages including emotional distress, loss of their physical liberty, mental anguish and humiliation, pain and suffering, and other nonpecuniary losses.

COUNT XIX
(42 U.S.C. § 1983 – Monell Claim against the City of Chicago)

139. Plaintiffs reallege all of the above paragraphs and counts, as if fully set forth herein.

140. At all times material to this Complaint, there existed in the City of Chicago the following practices, policies and customs:

- a. stopping, detaining, arresting, and searching civilians without a warrant, probable cause, reasonable suspicion, consent, or any other legal basis;
- b. searching civilians' vehicles without a warrant, probable cause, reasonable suspicion, consent, or any other legal basis;

- c. arbitrary use of excessive force against arrestees, detainees and other civilians;
- d. denial of substantive due process, abuse of legal process, malicious prosecution, and filing of false charges against innocent persons;
- e. mental abuse, oral abuse and assault and of arrestees, detainees, and other civilians;
- f. preparing false and incomplete police reports to cover up police misconduct including unconstitutional searches and seizures;
- g. not preparing police reports, and false denial that an incident of misconduct even took place, in attempt to suppress and conceal police misconduct including unconstitutional searches and seizures,
- h. a code of silence in which police officers fail to report police misconduct including the type of misconduct alleged by Plaintiff in this Complaint, and described in sub-paragraphs a - e above;
- i. said code of silence also includes police officers either remaining silent or giving false and misleading information during official investigations to cover up misconduct, and protect themselves and other officers;
- j. failure to adequately train, supervise and discipline police officers in the categories and fields of police work addressed in sub-paragraphs a - e above;
- k. failure to adequately train and supervise police officers to rectify the malfeasance described in sub-paragraphs a - e above;
- l. failure to adequately investigate citizen complaints against police officers for the type of misconduct alleged by Plaintiff in this Complaint, and described in sub-paragraphs a - c above;
- m. failure to adequately discipline police officers for the type of misconduct alleged by Plaintiff in this Complaint, and described in sub-paragraphs a - e above
- n. through the Office of Professional Standards (OPS), conducting inherently deficient investigations of citizen complaints of police misconduct in which an officer is disciplined in a minuscule percentage of cases, thereby encouraging even more police misconduct;

- o. complete failure to deter police officers from the type of misconduct alleged in this Complaint, and described in sub-paragraphs a - e above, by its lack of discipline for police misconduct, and defective OPS investigations;

141. The actions of the Defendant-Officers as alleged in this Complaint were done pursuant to, and as a result of, one or more of the above de facto practices, policies and customs of the City of Chicago, the Chicago Police Department, and its police officers.

142. One or more of the following entities, authorities and officials are responsible for the policies, practices and customs alleged above: the Mayor of Chicago, the City Council, the aldermen, the Chicago Police Department, the Chicago Police Board (to which the City of Chicago has delegated de jure final policy-making authority for the Chicago Police Department); the members of the Chicago Police Board, the Office of Professional Standards, and Superintendent Phil Cline (to whom the City of Chicago has delegated de facto final policy-making authority for the Chicago Police Department regarding the matters complained of herein).

143. The practices, policies and customs described above are widespread, permanent and well-settled, and were known, or should have been known, to the municipal policy-makers of the City of Chicago.

144. The municipal policy-makers of the City of Chicago acted with deliberate indifference to the rights of Plaintiffs in maintaining, overlooking and preserving the unconstitutional practices, policies and customs delineated above.

145. By their inaction and failure to correct the above-described practices, policies and customs, municipal policy-makers tacitly approve and thus indirectly authorize the type of misconduct Plaintiff complains of herein.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff asks that this Honorable Court:

- a) Enter judgment against the City of Chicago;
- b) Award Plaintiff compensatory damages, as determined at trial;
- c) Award Plaintiff attorney's fees and costs;
- d) Award such other and additional relief that this Honorable Court deems just and equitable.

COUNT XX
State Claim for Respondeat Superior

146. Plaintiffs reallege paragraphs 1 through 54 as if fully set forth herein.

147. The acts of the Defendant-officers described in the state claims specified above, were willful and wanton, and committed in the scope of their employment. Therefore, as principal, the Defendant CITY OF CHICAGO is liable for its agents' actions under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment against the CITY OF CHICAGO, and such other and additional relief that this Honorable Court deems just and equitable.

COUNT XXI
Indemnification Claim pursuant to 745 ILCS 10/9-102

148. At all times material to this Complaint, the Defendant-Officers were employees of Defendant CITY OF CHICAGO.

149. The above-described acts of the Defendant-Officers were willful and wanton.

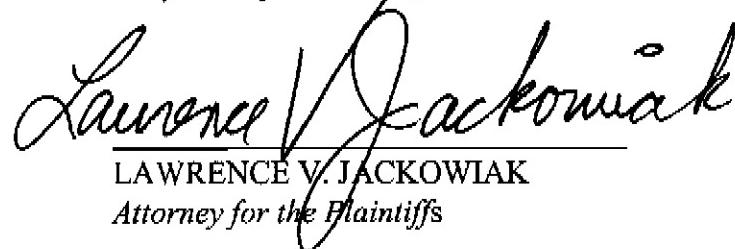

150. The above-described acts of the Defendant-Officers were committed in the scope of their employment.

151. Pursuant to the Illinois Tort Immunity Act, 745 ILCS 10/9-102, Defendant CITY OF CHICAGO is liable for any judgments in this case arising from the actions of the Defendant-Officers.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs ask that this Honorable Court order Defendant CITY OF CHICAGO to indemnify the Defendant-Officers for any judgment entered in this case arising from the actions of the Defendant-Officers.

Plaintiffs demand trial by jury.

Respectfully submitted,
